

Tersus SDS

SLUDGE DEWATERING SYSTEM

The Tersus SDS is a sludge dewatering system uses a specially made bag to filter the medium.

The Tersus SDS system is made to easily but install and remove the large bag. After the Tersus SDS system is picked up the bottom can be opened and the bag can be emptied in a suitable container. The Tersus SDS system can be used in together with our other filtration units and systems to make the dewatering and filtration of sludges and slurries both quick, economical and easy.

Key Product Features

- Reduction of the waste management costs
- Easy to use and empty
- Optional combination with automatic filters, cartridges or other filtration systems

Dewatering, quick and easy

304L St. Steel, PP tray

1 - 1200

See webpage for related products

Custom made

Designed by IFAB Sweden

CE NSF PED 97/23/EC