

ENVIRONMENTAL POLICY

The Environmental policy can be summarized as:

Skandinaviska IFAB Filtrering AB shall:

- Continuously improve our performance in environmental and safety in a businesslike manner.
- Prioritize and integrate the environmental performance, consider the use of natural resources in a long perspective.
- Meet or exceed requirements of the laws, ordinances and regulations and follow the guidelines of ISO-14001.
- Work for the precautionary principle and aim for technological solutions that can adapt to future environmental demands.
- Pursue and open collaboration with suppliers, customers, consumers and others in the business and environmental area.
- Have current expertise on the business impacts for the health and environment. Use this in planning and implementation of various activities and to ensure that these principles to be adopted by contractors and subcontractors.
- Regularly check that the business operates under this policy and all environmental procedures.